

Special Treatment Licensing Fees – 1 April 2018

PART II OF THE LONDON LOCAL AUTHORITIES ACT 1991

The London Borough of Bexley has allocated the different types of special treatments caught by the Act into three categories, with those in 'Category A' carrying the most risk and complexity and those in 'Category C' the least. Fees have then been set having had regard to which category a special treatment type falls.

Table 1 below sets out which of the three categories each special treatment type has allocated into. A further breakdown of the different special treatments within each category is provided in the Council's guidance 'A-Z of Special Treatments'.

Table 1

Treatment	Category	Risk
Light (includes laser), electric or other special treatment of a like kind, but not electrolysis and tanning using UV light.	A	High
Acupuncture, electrolysis, tattooing (which includes semi-permanent make-up, micro-pigmentation and chemical tattoo removal) and cosmetic piercing, but not ear piercing.	B	Medium
Massage, manicure (includes false nails), chiropody, vapour, sauna or other baths, ear piercing and tanning using UV light.	C	Low

The fee for the various application types, in each special treatment category, is set out in Table 2 below.
