

Hurst Primary School

Hurst Council Infant School was built in 1935 on Dorchester Avenue, Old Bexley.

The Junior School was opened in December 1936. In 1945 they were transferred from Kent County Council to the Borough of Bexley and renamed Hurst Junior School and Hurst Infant School. From 1965 they came under the new London Borough of Bexley. In 1984 the two departments were formally recognised as separate schools. The following year however they were combined into a single Hurst Junior, Mixed and Infant School or Hurst Primary School. The School has remained on the original site throughout its history.
